

Values Identification

This exercise will help to identify four or five core values to help your organization or initiative determine priorities and make decisions as to where resources would best be directed as it pertains to its ongoing growth and development. Using the following list, circle (or add) the values or principles that you believe are most important for citizens of your community. Choose your top five values and enter them in the left hand column. Please consider values that would be relevant to all stakeholders. The votes will be tallied to determine the common shared values of participants.
